Description :

PDF-36b61 | In this shocking story of captured B-29 airmen who were shot down over Japan during World War II, flight engineer Lt. Fiske Hanley II tells of the torture, beatings, and starvation they suffered at the hands of their captors. Treated as “special prisoners” by the Japanese Kempei Tai (secret police), they were held in Tokyo, living in an overcrowded and filthy dungeon without clothes or food an... Accused American War Criminal
