Description :

PDF-2b336 | It was reported that John Wilkes Booth, the killer of Abraham Lincoln, was shot dead in a barn near Port Royal. But perhaps this story should be questioned, perhaps it is not true at all... In 1872, seven years after Booth was supposedly killed, Finis L. Bates met a man who called himself John St. Helen. After befriending and gaining the confidence of this man Bates came into knowledge which would... The Escape and Suicide of John Wilkes Booth
