Description :

PDF-ceived | In this book Duncan Williamson, the son, grandson and great grandson of nomadic tinsmiths, basket weavers, pipers and storytellers, recounts his life with verve, candour and intimacy.

Beginning with recollections of a childhood spent on the shores of Loch Fyne, he goes on to describe working on small hill farms in the summer months; walking with barrows and prams, and later with horse and cart, th... The Horsieman: Memoirs of a Traveller 1928-58
