Description :

PDF-1d91c | A gripping memoir on living despite mortality relentlessly tapping at your shoulder. Great story, great writing that engages from page one. "Exquisitely detailed." – Publishers Weekly. "Moving while eschewing sentimentality." "I should have died by now—on more than one occasion. Yet I remain alive after almost a decade with acute leukemia that keeps coming back." So begins this remark... Into the Funhouse: An Unpredictable Story of a Relentless Leukemia
