Description :

PDF-ac67b | Edited and Compiled by Doug Phillips Roosevelt adored his children, four of whom were boys, each of whom he was intent on turning into a man of action. He once commented that his own father was the greatest man he ever knew. His commitment to being the same example for his sons was evident not only in the remarkable globe-trotting adventures on which they accompanied him, but also in the copious l... The Letters and Lessons of Teddy Roosevelt for His Sons (Profiles in Fatherhood)
