Description :

PDF-becc1 | Organ donation – how many of us actually sits down with our loved ones and has a conversation about what should happen to us if the worst happened and we died before our time? How many of us would become a live donor and offer a kidney to help another person? The loss of a parent is devastating, but when, as an adult, you find yourself with the same condition from which your father died, and you... Lilac Haze
