Description :

PDF-c91b7 | First edition. The memoirs of Robert Wilson, owner of the legendary Phoenix Book Shop, is a fascinating and humorous account of how he, between 1962 and 1988, transformed a small, obscure book shop into a world-famous literary haven. The author writes of his long friendships with some of the literary giants of the 20th century, such as Marianne Moore, and W.H. Auden, and provides mini-biographies ... Seeing Shelley Plain
