Description :

PDF-8b4af | Horse racing. From 1929, starting out as a 14 year old jockey, Bill Mills relates interesting stories from his life around horses, the race track and becoming the starter at the famous Santa Anita race track in Arcadia, California. Here about the highs and the lows of traveling the country, going from city to city and working different horse race meetings. Each race track has its own personality a... They're Off and Running: From Jockey to Starter
