Description :

PDF-f1806 | Born in a small, impoverished town in northern Italy, Evo J. DeConcini enjoyed school and wanted nothing more than to further his education. He followed his older brothers to America in 1946, at the age of fourteen, eager to take advantage of the opportunities offered by this new world. As he worked toward a bright future in America—learning English, going to graduate school, and eventually ente... A True Story: The DeConcini Family History
